

(a)

1) Write a complete sentence answer with the actual solution blank.
5) Fill in the blank spot to complete the solution.

2) Write down any given information that will/may be useful. If you end up using something you didn't write down, come back and include it.

4) Solve the problem. Make use of your strategy and given information. If you find you need more info, go back and revise.

3) Write down your strategy. Include any definitions, alternate meanings, steps, or things to exclude.

(b)

1) Write a complete sentence answer with the actual solution blank.
5) Fill in the blank spot to complete the solution.

2) Write down any given information that will/may be useful. If you end up using something you didn't write down, come back and include it.

4) Solve the problem. Make use of your strategy and given information. If you find you need more info, go back and revise.

3) Write down your strategy. Include any definitions, alternate meanings, steps, or things to exclude.

(c)

1) Write a complete sentence answer with the actual solution blank.
5) Fill in the blank spot to complete the solution.

2) Write down any given information that will/may be useful. If you end up using something you didn't write down, come back and include it.

4) Solve the problem. Make use of your strategy and given information. If you find you need more info, go back and revise.

3) Write down your strategy. Include any definitions, alternate meanings, steps, or things to exclude.

(d)

1) Write a complete sentence answer with the actual solution blank.
5) Fill in the blank spot to complete the solution.

2) Write down any given information that will/may be useful. If you end up using something you didn't write down, come back and include it.

4) Solve the problem. Make use of your strategy and given information. If you find you need more info, go back and revise.

3) Write down your strategy. Include any definitions, alternate meanings, steps, or things to exclude.